

Job title	Transgender Program Curator
Reports to	Deputy Director
Start Date	January / February 2022
Position Type	Annual Contract, Part-Time

Job purpose

The New Haven Pride Center seeks an individual to continue to develop and run the Center's Transgender focused programming. The Center's Transgender programs are designed to be inclusive of all identities that fall under the Transgender umbrella. Additionally, the Transgender Program Curator will work with other members of our programming team to deliver multi-dimensional events and activities that represent the intersectional nature of LGBTQ+ identities. This position will also be responsible for fostering relationships with Connecticut's wide range of Transgender leaders and organizers.

Duties and responsibilities

- Work to create Transgender focused programming within the Center's leading activities including:
 - PRIDE New Haven
 - Support Services
 - Art, Culture, and Humanities Programming
 - Educational and Outreach Programming
- Develop new activities and events, focused for the Transgender community
- Manage major Transgender annual events - Trans Awareness Week and Transgender Day of Visibility
- Work in partnership with other Program Officers to develop activities that address the intersectional relationships between different facets of the LGBTQ+ community
- Develop our relationship with and form new partnerships with key Transgender organizing groups, social groups, and service organizations
- Help to identify prospects for the Center's Board of Directors and Board subcommittees within the community

Qualifications

Persons in this position should:

- have lived experience as a member of the Transgender community
- have some experience in program development and event management
- have knowledge of New Haven and Connecticut's LGBTQ+ organizing landscape, with an understanding of what Transgender programming and organizing groups that currently exist
- have strong verbal and written communication skills
- be proficient in computer programs including Microsoft Office, Microsoft Excel, and Google Docs
- be a self-starter - able to work independently without persistent oversight, particularly when working remotely
- be able to build and maintain positive relationships within a variety of different individual organizers, community groups, and other organizations

Compensation and Working Conditions

This is a contracted, part-time position that will be evaluated and renewed on an annual basis, working between 15-20 hours per week. The hourly rate of the position will be $20 per hour. This position will include some weekend and evening hours based on program schedule. There are minimal physical requirements of this position. This position's work can be made up of a combination of remote and in-office work.